

DRAFT DIRECTOR CLARIFIES POINT IN SELECTIVE SERVICE

Public employees, including Federal, state, county and municipal workers, will be given the same consideration with regard to occupational deferment from Selective Service training as private employees, C. A. Dykstra, director of Selective Service, announced this week in Washington when giving general assurance that the entire program will be carried out with "the least possible disruption of the normal economy."

Some local governments, he said, have raised the question of group exemptions for local public employees. Such exemptions are of course, prohibited by law. Local boards of the Selective Service system must pass on individual cases of occupational deferment of registrants, Dykstra said.

The director suggested the following procedure to employers who wish to make a "preliminary check" of employees likely to be inducted into the armed forces of the nation:

"Any employer, private or public, who is concerned will do well to make a list of all key men who are necessary in his activity, between the ages of 21-35, then strike off all of those who are married and those who are physically unfit. The remainder will be those who may be subject to call for training. Then take off five percent of the total number. This figure should give an approximation of the number of employees who might be selected from those eligible for training during any given year under the present Act, if there were no provision made for occupational deferment."

"CINDERELLA SERVICE"

Do you know that public health is still the Cinderella of government. Of a total tax bill amounting to $26, only 71 cents goes to maintain services of the County Health Department.

HUNDREDS OF HOME WIVES VOTED 4 TO 1 FOR CAKES THEY MADE WITH SURE-MIX CRISCO

SUCH FINE TEXTURE!
"MY CRISCO CAKES HAVE SUCH FINE TEXTURE... THEY TURN OUT JUST GRAND!"
Mrs. Charles Barlett of Kansas City—who tested Crisco against her regular shortening

LIGHTER CAKES!
"MY FAMILY VOTED MY CAKE THE LIGHTEST EVER WHEN I TRIED IT WITH NEW 'SURE-MIX' CRISCO"
Mrs. J. T. Becker of Lansdowne, Pa.

BETTER-TASTING!
"BOY! WHAT GOOD CAKE — THE BEST EVER."
said John Godfrey of Elkhart, Ind., when his mother made the Crisco test

"CRISCO CAKES are LIGHTER!"

vote housewives 4 to 1

Yes, "SURE-MIX" CRISCO is different — makes cakes better 3 new ways

Want your cakes to become lighter — smoother-textured — better-tasting? They can be, so easily! That's what hundreds of housewives discovered when they tested "Sure-Mix" Crisco.

These women (living in 20 cities from Coast to Coast) were using other shortenings when independent investigators called and gave to each woman a can of "Sure-Mix" Crisco, saying, "Try it in a cake recipe of your own."

Crisco wins by 4 to 1! Then—what a triumph for Crisco cakes! When these housewives told us which shortening they liked better, the vote was 4 to 1 for Crisco over all other shortenings combined!

Yes, these women reported Crisco cakes were better in 3 ways — lighter — smoother-textured — better-tasting. And their families tasted the difference, too—said they liked Crisco cakes better! — And these same women voted 4 to 1 for the flakier pastry and better-tasting fried foods they got with Crisco.

Why Crisco is different!
A patented discovery makes Crisco different from any other home shortening we know of. See how much smoother cake batters you get—how evenly blended! You can get cakes consistently up to 15% higher and lighter (depending on type of cake) than cakes made with even the most expensive shortening.

And no shortening us know of comes to you purer, fresher, creamier than all vegetable Crisco. Buy Crisco today!

MOTHER'S LAYER CAKE
with Surprise Chocolate icing — uses semi-sweet chocolate and candied orange peel

3/4 cup Crisco Grated rind of 1/2 cup sugar 2 eggs 1/4 teaspoon 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder 1/4 cup powder

Cream together Crisco, sugar, eggs, salt and grated rind. Sift flour with baking powder twice. Add flour mixture alternately with milk (about 1/2 of each at a time). Bake in two "Crisco" layer pans (8x8) in moderately hot oven (375° F.) 35 minutes.

SURPRISE CHOCOLATE ICING
7 ounces semi-sweet chocolate 2 tablespoons Crisco 1/4 cup sifted confectioners sugar 1/4 cup hot milk 1/2 cup finely minced candied orange peel

Melt Crisco with chocolate; add sugar, then milk slowly. Beat till satin-smooth. Add orange peel. Makes enough for filling and frosting. (Strips of fresh candied orange peel are a pretty decoration.)
